Virgadamo, Belt Say Promises at Ceremony

Anne Louise Virgadamo was joined in marriage to Ernest Guy Belt at Ascension Lutheran Church August 5 at a 2 p.m. nuptial ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Virgadamo, 26716 Eastvale Rd., Rolling Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Belt of 27215 Eastvale Rd., Rolling Hills.

Miss Virgadamo wore a floor-length bridal gown of nylon organza over satin. Her gown had a sabrina neckline which was edged with three-dimensional bow-knots of Venice lace. The gown had shirred puff sleeves and a billowing skirt adorned with Venice lace.

VEIL
The bride wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion secured by a coronet of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of Catalpa orchids and Stephanotis.

The bride was given away in marriage by her father during the ceremony which was officiated by the Rev. Henry Erickson. Music was presented by Edna Ernst.

Maid of honor at the ceremony was Margaret Belt who wore a short aqua silk-organza bouffant dress with white lace on the large puff sleeves. She wore accessories of aqua and carried a bouquet of tuberous begonias.

Best man at the ceremony was Charles Crawford. Ushers were Pete Rothmell, Bob Virgadamo, Gary Belt, and Bill Taylor.

MOTHERS
Mother of the bride wore a beige chantilly lace gown with matching accessories and a spray of green orchids pinned to her clutch bag. The bridegroom's mother wore an ice-blue lace over white sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Immediately after the wedding, a champagne reception was held at the Hacienda

Hotel in San Pedro. The new Mr. and Mrs. Belt now reside in Redondo Beach. They are both graduates of Narbonne High School. Belt is presently attending Harbor College.
